The Aviator

Chapter 1: The Boa Constrictor

THE VISION

A drawing of a boa constrictor digesting an elephant. Not a hat.

THE ADULT PROBLEM

Adults never understand anything by themselves, and it is tiresome for children to be always and forever explaining things to them.

Chapter 2: The Encounter

THE SAHARA

Six years ago, I had an accident with my plane in the Desert of Sahara. Something was breaking in my engine.

THE REQUEST

“Please... draw me a sheep!”

The Perfect Sheep

ITERATION 1-3

Too sickly, too old, or actually a ram. All rejected.

THE SOLUTION

The sheep you asked for is inside this box.

Chapter 3: Origin Story

ASTEROID B-612

It was with considerable difficulty that I eventually learned that the planet the little prince came from was scarcely any larger than a house.
